

A tall, modern, light gray storage cabinet with multiple shelves, drawers, and a large sliding door at the bottom. The cabinet features a clean, minimalist design with a light gray finish. It has two open shelving units at the top, each with a perforated metal back panel. Below these are two rows of three drawers each, with black handles. The bottom section is a large, wide sliding door with a horizontal ribbed texture. The cabinet is shown against a plain white background.
